

Captain R. N. Stewart, V.C., D.S.O., R.N.R., Commander of the Duchess of York (left), with Capt. Belliveau, V.C., of Cariboo, B. C.

Col. Thomas Cantley, M.P. for Pictou, Nova Scotia, photographed in the garden lounge of the Lady Hawkins, on the West Indies cruise

Mr. Henri Bourassa, M.P. for Labelle, Quebec, in the lounge of the Lady Hawkins, during a cruise of the British West Indies

Tobogganing in I deira, Miss M. Smith, of Westmont and Dr. E. H. White Montreal, on the press of Australia

P
the out
It is riot per tion Tw

Miss Barbara Carrigue and Mr. Jeffrey G. Carrigue, of Montreal, niece and nephew of Col. Frederick Gascogne, on the Duchess of Bedford cruise

At right: Mrs. J. Murray Dobbie, of Brockville, with Mrs. Cawley, wife of Major H. E. Cawley, and son, John, of Halleybury, Ontario, at Nassau. Courtesy Underwood and Underwood

A scene from Snowed Inn, by H. Napier Moore, of Toronto, a Dickens fantasy performed on the Duchess of Bedford, during her West Indies cruise. The cast included: Mr. Randolph Crowe, of Toronto; Mr. W. J. Larmouth, K.C., of Ottawa; Mr. T. R. Banbury, of Toronto; Mr. John Carrigue, of Montreal; Mr. J. Harry Smith, of Montreal; Mrs. Smith, of the Pilgrim Players, who produced the play; Mr. Alan Irwin, of Montreal; Mr. T. A. Bridgeford, of Montreal, and Mr. Kidner, of Bristol, England

CANADIANS ENJOY

The return of of the British V McSweeney, of Hanna, immediately Fough, of Toronto Carrigue, of Montreal of the C. P. R. h

