

Top at left: Mr. R. S. McLaughlin, of Parkwood, Oshawa, setting out in his new Cadillac 16 for Cobourg Horse Show, where his hunters again distinguished themselves in the ring

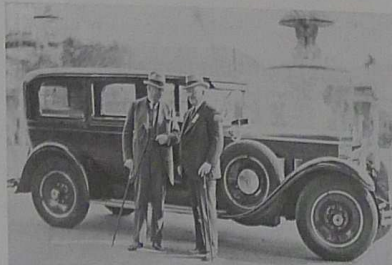

Top, at right: Mrs. Donald Ross, setting out for Government House, Toronto, in a new model Cord. Mrs. Ross is a daughter-in-law of His Honor W. D. Ross, Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario

Immediately left: Mr. and Mrs. R. C. H. Cassels, of Toronto, arrive with their Hudson for the midsummer garden party of the Toronto Cricket Club

Above: Mr. H. A. Harrison arriving in his La Salle sedan at the Granite Club, Toronto. Below: Two of the distinguished guests at the Canadian National Exhibition, arriving in a Packard for the directors' luncheon. Hon. R. B. Bennett, Premier of Canada (left) with Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, Premier of Ontario

SMART CARS FOR THE SMART EVENTS

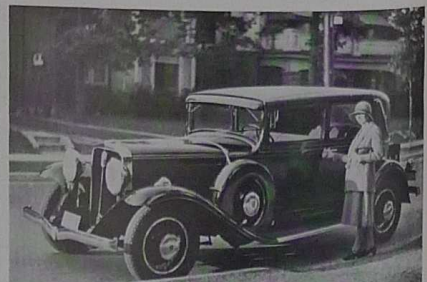

Extreme right: Mrs. D. J. Shannon, of Moore Park, Toronto, starting out for an afternoon engagement in a new Studebaker, President Eight Brougham

Bottom now, at left: Mrs. W. G. Rowe and Mrs. C. E. Murray, of Toronto, with a new Chrysler coupe

Bottom, right: When Miss Jeanne Gordon, Metropolitan Opera star, alights from the trains which bring her from New York appearances she chooses to drive from St. Thomas to her summer home at Cedar Springs, Ontario, in a new Ford convertible cabriolet

Keen,
Cool,
Hard-to-
Knowing
As mothe
Their chi
Meet the
Of any ge
Ask him.
Cross-exa
On the s
Hupmobi
For years
Have list
Croon.
His eyes l
The mech
Of Hupm
Deep-dow
Where a l
Can never
His finger
Disrobe
All preter
And strip
To the sta
Of its me

So...
When you
The Hupr
Of 1931,
The four
The Centu
And your
To their sl
Their deep
And your
At their Sp
Power, Pe
And you w
To check y
Page your
That keen
Hard-to-fo
Motor car
Mechanic!

