MAYFAIR

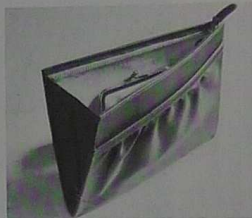

YOU need to keep up with the swift moving era by reading every issue of Mayfair. Mayfair reports exclusive news in the word of Canadian society, fashions, sport, art . . . gossiping about it all in a gay, readable, witty style. Subscribe today . . . and you will always be sure of your copy.

MAYFAIR GOES SHOPPING

Right: Costume jewelry, an underarm bag of modernistic linen, and the collar and cuffs in lace and pleated georgette, are chic spring accessories. The Evangeline Shop

Left: Fairmay bag of morocco leather in green, blue, red or beige. The lightning fastener, back strap and change purse are unique features. Julian Sale Leather Company

Above: Bacchus, surrounded by the symbol of his deity, in an interesting relief motif is the unique decoration on this jug. A Sheffield replica. Roden Bros.

Left: The Deimelette for moderns, to achieve the new silhouette, is effected in linen mesh which molds itself to the figure

Smart luggage for the spring vacation. A Pontop covered automobile trunk, a taxi wardrobe of convenient size, a serviceable club bag with a detachable leather pocket for toilet articles, and a collapsible Duffel bag, indispensable to golfers. From J. Eveleigh and Co.
