

CHAMPIONSHIP POLO OUT WEST

There has been the greatest enthusiasm for polo, again this season in Winnipeg, Calgary and Vancouver, in which latter city the Northeastern International challenge was played. On this page are some pictures from the games played at Calgary

—Oliver, Calgary

At top: Virginia ranch team, runners up in the Western Canada championships. Left to right: Peter Dewhurst, G. "Happy" Rogers, C. Radcliffe and J. Martin

Centre: At the Western Canada Championship Polo Matches. Mrs. (Col.) D. J. MacDonald, on behalf of Calgary Polo Club presenting trophy to Col. Stockwell, captain of Winnipeg team for sportsmanship. At right: Vancouver polo team, Western Canadian champions for 1927. Left to right, Frank Ward, J. C. Sweeney, T. Wilmot and N. Drysdale

air, November, 1927

nan-Thomas, before they charm of manner are their ice. In addition they are that they make the most et in England. Going to enture to them and in the t. Mrs. Freeman-Thomas a series of water-color s illustrations for a Fairy-friend.

bits of color in original t skill shown in the design "I have made a special ting," said my hostess, so the artistic talents of Sir Forbes-Robertson. Miss er's sister, has loaned her use in St. John's Wood as n Brighton way. So the great occasion—tea with in a great actress' home! Capt. Freeman-Thomas and he pointed to the as Lady Willingdon as a dress" riding togs of the abit, tall hat and bouton- ave been more than six! the compensations for season; when meeting not just the how d'you al affairs. Undoubtedly was (See also page 74)

tiful estate at hot taken by