

MRS. ALISTER MCCORMICK ● OF CHICAGO ●

Like all true Englishwomen, Mrs. McCormick makes a hobby of flowers. She specializes in aloes, and is making a wonderful collection of hundreds of varieties of tropical plants in her Santa Barbara garden. Her new winter home is high on a mountain, overlooking ocean and isles.

(below) Mrs. McCormick's California home is a treasure house of charming pieces of French provincial furniture collected abroad. Her dressing table in carved walnut is an unusually interesting example of this favorite style.

● Mrs. Alister McCormick is an English gentlewoman to the manner born... a descendant of the royal house of Plantagenet. Now by marriage a member of the distinguished McCormick family, she is the charming hostess of homes in Chicago and Santa Barbara.

Beautiful and blonde, young Mrs. McCormick has hair like pale new gold, eyes of forget-me-not blue and lovely skin like pink hawthorn blossom.

In a letter to an English friend she says: "My dear, American women are wonderful... they taught me how to keep my skin nice even in this extraordinary climate.

"Pond's is their secret... four simple preparations, quick and easy to use. The wonderful Cold Cream cleanses divinely... the Cleansing Tissues are better than anything to remove cream... the Skin Freshener tones and tightens the skin... the Vanishing Cream is the perfect powder base for face, neck, arms... and keeps hands smooth and white."
