

Top: At the launching of the Saguenay Royal Canadian torpedo boat destroyer, at Southampton, England. Mrs. Desbarats (centre) performed the launching ceremony. Extreme right: Mr. Justice Duolos, of Montreal, enjoying the view of the Strait of Northumberland from Pictou Lodge, the log bungalow resort of the C.N.R.

Centre: The luncheon party of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick, at the Grove, Government House, Rothesay, N.B. Seated: Her Excellency Lady Willingdon. From left: Mr. H. Montgomery-Campbell, O.B.E., of Fredericton, Miss Maud McLean, sister of the Lieutenant-Governor; Mrs. Hugh Mackay, Mrs. Frederick Murray, Mrs. H. M. Stetson, the Lieutenant-Governor's daughter, and official hostess; the Lieutenant-Governor, Hon. L. P. D. Tilley, Captain Streetfield, A.D.C.; Sir Douglas Hazen, Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley and Mr. Eric Mieville

Below, at right: Miss Sheila Proctor, of Toronto, granddaughter of the late Sir Edward Kemp, presenting prizes to the winners during Indian Days at Banff Springs Hotel. Immediately below: Lady Gordon, wife of Sir Charles Gordon, of Montreal, with Miss Cecily Eve, daughter of Dr. Ewe, of Montreal, guests at Pictou Lodge, the Canadian National Railway's seaside resort on the south shore of the Strait of Northumberland

Hazen, Brunswick were and visitational Canadian Toronto

Thorn-garby by Ham, tower

