

set and the doing some of the Toronto in, this season. good record for the Spring fore part of left: Miss Joan of the jumps on party. At right: Myers, up on Millington

Ross, youngest His Honor the Governor of Ontario. Ross, is a rider at the t. At left, in u, she appears t, O.K. In the he right: Littleistol, is seen inside Signal aying has been s exercise of est riders with Hunt, Eglinton, st winter. The roduced to the audiences with re of success. from left: A or polo players etir ponies, Mr. ron, Mr. John t. Churchill ny Smith, Mr. r. J. H. Crang

In connection with the thirtieth annual meeting of Toronto Horse Show, held at the Toronto Hunt, Eglinton, for the four days of May, matinee performances gave the young riders opportunity to demonstrate their progress. Top right: Six-year-old Marion Tyrrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Victor Tyrrell, of Forest Hill Village, giving sweets to her pony, Blue Bell. Marion was the youngest participant in the Horse Show this year

At centre, on the left: Miss Helen Gurney, of Toronto, snapped with Barney O'Neil. Extreme right: Miss Dorothy Plaxton with Charleston

In the lower group are pictured several of the juveniles of the Eglinton Hunt, all of whom took part in the Horse Show. Reading from left: Miss Donna Creed, with Nannette; Miss Enid Hunt, with Penryn; Misses Nancy and Victoria Gooderham, with Toby and Signal

JUVENILES AT EGLINTON HUNT

inch 0 inch 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 cm 0 cm 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27