

"There's Smilge in Their Mileage."

Wearing Uncomfortable Shoes is Old-Fashioned especially when you can wear

MENIHAN'S ARCH-AID SHOES

New
Fall model in genuine Brown Alligator, fashioned with one strap. Priced at $16.00.

The early fall numbers will delight you. Come in and try on a pair.

Free parking space for our patrons opposite our store.

THESE shoes can be had in a wide variety of styles and attractive designs. Styles just ahead of the ordinary shoe and for comfort—well, ask a friend who wears them.

GEO. L. CONQUERGOOD
Graduate Chiropodist, in attendance.

ARCH-AID BOOT SHOP
24 Bloor St. West
TORONTO

IMPORTED NOVELTIES

Agnes

"The Smart New Shop"

Invites You
to the Opening on October Fifteenth

699 Yonge Street (near Bloor)
Toronto

in Victoria the daughters were guests at several functions given in honor of the visiting princes and also among the chosen few at a dinner arranged by the junior officers of the H.M.S. Colombo, prefacing a dance on the same ship. Mr. and Mrs. Magrath have taken a house on Clarendon Avenue, Toronto, for the coming year.

Captain Hugh Tristram Massey-Beresford, and his bride, the former Helen Lindsay Lawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Compton Lawford, of Montreal, have left for their home in England and a few days before sailing were the guests of Their Excellencies Lord and Lady Willingdon at Government House, Ottawa.

On October 7, the Antonia, sailing from Montreal, had among her passengers Mr. and Mrs. Philippe Krafft, returning to their home in Paris, France, after a summer in Montreal and Murray Bay. Mrs. Krafft will be remembered as the beautiful Marielle Hebert, daughter of Mrs. Zepherine Hebert, of Montreal, and a sister of Mrs. Charles Coles. Therese and Etienne, their little daughter and son, accompanied them. Mrs. Krafft is a cousin of Miss Magdeleine Hebert, the daughter of Mrs. L. H. Hebert, one of the most attractive members of the Montreal smart set. Miss Hebert had the honor of numbering the Prince of Wales among her guests at a dance which her mother gave for her at the Ritz Carlton several years ago. Since that time H.R.H. has never failed to include her in his Montreal parties. She was at the dinner-dance given by the Royal brothers at the Montreal Hunt Club during their last visit. When in Paris two years ago at the time that the Prince was making an incog. visit, H.R.H. took Miss Hebert to the theatre.

Mrs. Alison Cumming, of Vancouver, stopped off in Montreal on her way home from England long enough to renew old friendships and take an active part in the Canadian Women's Senior

Wallace Havelock Robb, Canadian poet who was granted a private interview with H.R.H. the Prince of Wales during his recent visit to Victoria, B.C. Mr. Robb was snapped in the gardens of the Empress Hotel

Premier Bracken of Manitoba and Mrs. Bracken snapped during their visit to Quebec City when they were guests at the Chateau Frontenac

Below—James W. Thornton, son of Sir Henry Thornton, taken as he disembarked at New York from the Cunard liner Berengaria, on his way home from Europe

Golf Championships at Mt. Bruno in September. Mrs. Cumming is a sister of Mrs. A. P. S. Glasco, of Montreal. Before their marriage and in company with a third sister they were known as the Rawlings trio.

Mr. Gustave Lemieux, of Montreal, a brother of the Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux and of the Agent-General for Quebec, and the Hon. George Lynch-Staunton and Mrs. Lynch-Staunton, of St. Catharines, have arrived in London, England. Mr. Lemieux is staying in Bloomsbury. Lieut.-Col. George P. Vanier and Mrs. Vanier, the former Pauline Archer, of Montreal, the daughter of the Hon. Charles Archer, will also be numbered among the Canadians in London within the next week.

Silk
AVRIL
Former
Murray-K

730 Y.