

Above: Mr. T. R. Enderby of Montreal, with his three children, skiing on the hills at Murray Bay

Senator J. P. B. Casgrain is smartly dressed for snowshoeing with this colorful ceinture flechée

In a picturesque setting; Mr. R. Forster, of Montreal, taking a holiday on skis at Murray Bay

Old-fashioned racquettes have a patron at the Manoir in Mr. Randall Davidson, of Montreal

Right: Mr. J. B. Carswell, of Hamilton, with his two children at Murray Bay. His movie camera has bagged some lively action shots of the snow sports

Below: A group of well-known skiers at Murray Bay. From left to right, Mr. Allan Tiffin, Montreal; Mr. Raymond Thomas, Montreal; Mr. Sam (H.T.) Cliff, president of the Toronto Ski Club; Mr. A. C. d'Egville, continental skiing authority; Mr. H. P. Douglas, Montreal, president of the Ski Association of Canada; Miss Emily Yates, Mr. David Wanklyn and Mr. Brock Thomson

Mrs. J. O. Egan, wife of the manager of the Manoir Richelieu, in tweeds, a favorite sports ensemble

Very quaint to the Manoir ballroom and it is used as seen in the here are by through the

WINTER SPORTS TO THE MANOIR BORNE

