

—Rice, Montreal

of the outstanding
on, lately honored
ity

ar appointed to his
though for many
ian, following his
la College and his
Toronto University,
of friends in these
his charming wife
en and later in the
onto.

n of the late C. R.
a long period city
a grandson of Sir
of the most able
Dr. Biggar's elder
ally well known
ar, who was until
ral officer of the
t. Both brothers
a since the War,
fore assuming his
Assistant Director
n the Department
Re-establishment.

a long connection
in Canada, as he outh African and
his undergraduate
h the Tenth Cana-
which was the
ada sent to South
eat War, Dr. Bigtical Officer of
the British Army,
eutenant-Colonel
ditionary Forces
a Canadian Field
he was attached

he only daughter
d the late W. B. us uniting two
Their return to
been, therefore,
-coming and is a
he social, phil-
circles of the

—Ashley & Crippen

—Ashley & Crippen

—Ashley & Crippen

Above: Miss Jean Mac-Agy, daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. William C.
MacAgy, Rosedale

Top of page, left: Miss Virginia Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Irving Smith, Glen Elm Avenue, whose coming-out dance took place in the Jenkins Galleries.
Miss Smith wore a charming frock of white satin and silver. She carried a bouquet of
pink roses

—J. Kennedy

—J. Kennedy

Above: Miss Beth Lind,
youngest daughter of
Mr. and Mrs. W. J.
Lind, Forest Hill Road

Left: Miss Anea Bre-
win, daughter of the
Rev. F. H. and Mrs.
Brewin, and grand-
daughter of the late
Hon. Andrew C. Blair
and Mrs. Blair

Top of page, right:
Miss Margaret Par-
menter, daughter of
Mr. and Mrs. Reginald
Parmenter, Dunvegan
Road

A NOTABLE GROUP OF TORONTO DEBUTANTES