

Mrs. J. O. Evans, wife of the manager of the Manoir Richelieu, in tweeds, a favored sports ensemble

Colonel Charles W. MacLean, of Pointe Claire, Que., caught by the cameraman at the Manoir

On her way to the ice rink nearby, Mrs. W. H. Coverdale, of New York and Kingston, Ont.

Above: Mr. Allen J. Kerr, of the Montreal Winter Club, well-known figure skater, on the rink at Manoir Richelieu

Very quaint and Normanesque appears the new addition to the Manoir Richelieu at Murray Bay that contains the ballroom and flanks upon the swimming pool. In winter it is used as a dressing room for skaters using the rink seen in the rear of the building. The photographs shown here are by the Associated Screen News and are supplied through the courtesy of the Canada Steamship Lines Left: Mr. Allan C. d'Egville, celebrated continental cartoonist and skier, whose book on skiing is rated as an authority. He spent Christmas with Admiral Sir Charles and Lady Kingsmill in Ottawa

SNOW CARNIVAL AT MURRAY BAY

Mayfair, March, 1930

- fashioned ettes have a
on at the
tr in Mr.
all David-
of Montreal

zy Bay.
al; Mr.
f, presi-
le, con-
ontreal,
Emily
thomson

