

itor to Canada, who has
land is Mrs. Margaret
M. P. for Louth, Linco.
terested in investigating he rural women of the
fied by those who know
nality and the home type
. The daughter of David Yorks, England, she beolitics through her hus-Wintringham, M.P., to n 1903. Upon his death
o succeed him as Liberal n of Lincolnshire. She is Women's Association in olding opposite political
am and Vicountess
friends and agree on
al welfare and reform

have a national operal
y young singers, as here-
tle scope in this branch.
and general director of
al Opera, who is the ut on the same basis as has attained such not-f opera training will be
with the work and Mr.
group of Canada's own
the nucleus of the comarold Meek) is a Cana-
experience and ability.
s in the leading musical
e made a careful study
era. Since Mr. Albion
n National Opera nine
nthusiastic recognition Isabella Howard, wife
r, Mrs. Dawes, wife of United States, Mrs.
many other notables.

peaking of romantic
irs, Mayfair readers
y, perhaps, remember
photograph of the
dges - Innis wedding
e bride was a native
ghter of British Col-
bia, very young and
ty, and the courtship
affair of a few weeks
. A recent English
er refers to the happy
's homecoming thus:
e Laird of Bonny-
y, Aberdeenshire, Cap-
H. O. Bridges, R.N.
Mrs. Bridges were
n a cordial reception
garden party last week
Bonnykelly Lodge.
tenants presented
Bridges with a pearl
diamond necklace."

smart wedding was
of Miss Elizabeth
ies Robertson (Betty)
hter of Mrs. Arthur ertson and Mr. John te Hargreave, son of
W. H. Hargreave, of
oria, B.C.

—Dudley Hoyt

Lady Williams-Taylor

Lady Williams-Taylor, the wife of Sir Frederick Williams-Taylor of Montreal, society woman, hostess par excellence, journalist and traveller. Lady Williams-Taylor sails from New York early in December for a cruise around the world