

Right: Handsome dressing robe in brocaded silk from Paris with heavy satin trimming to tone. Novelty scarfs in Jacquard crepe in the smartest new designs from London. The latest word from Paris in silk handkerchiefs with hand rolled hems and attractive borders. Stanley & Bosworth, Toronto

Below: An imported twilled silk scarf in soft blues and grays. Quite the thing for the swagger wear are the wool socks, bravely checked. Wool scarf and shadow plaid. All are English and from John Henderson & Co., Montreal. Think of it, this something new in wallets holds forty cigars! English telescope suitcase in two pieces of heaviest cowhide. A cane with a different handle—lizard skin. Leather goods and cane from Mappin & Webb

—Moore & Nixon-James

—Sidney Carter

The Smart Woman Buys These for a Man

Other Gift Suggestions on page 86

—Sidney Carter

Above: An English derby a cane with a Shagreen handle and a plaided twilled silk scarf. John Henderson & Co., Montreal. The sterling silver cigarette box has a lever arrangement allowing one cigarette at a time to roll on a tray from the bottom of the box. The silver lighter is quite as decorative as useful. Mappin and Webb, Limited, Montreal

Left: For Christmas cheer what more appropriate than this Dutch liqueur set; decanter and glasses of frosted and cut glass with Dutch silver. The dainty glasses have Dutch silver base. The unique tray is beautiful, glistening glass with ornate edge in Dutch silver. Ellis Brothers, Toronto