

He is taken for a green horn.tenderfoot. The cowboys josh him &c. Kognic is all attention to Polly.

~~The sheep~~

~~Indian~~

The more he thinks of getting rid of her father the more att active the idea seems.

~~Assumpt~~

The old man is induced to drive over to the Reserve upon a fake message from one of the Cheshs. He is ambushed and shot. Kognic and his men rush down to the wagon, but Sandy seizes the reins, whips up the horses and races for the ranchhouse.

MCooy has witnessed the murder, ~~but~~ and gives chase to the masked men. They slip up a hill and roll a boulder down, almost striking him. They get away, ~~but~~ Kempers murder sets the whole country aflame with excitement. His men vow vengeance upon his murderers. ~~Polly~~ Kognic calls on Polly to expr ss his sorrow He even asks her if he can help her, by buying the place, and relieving her of the burden of the ranch. Polly tells him she will never gáve up. More than ever now wi l she carry on.

~~Kognic~~

~~The sheep~~

An order comes from the Indian department that the sheep are to be permitted entry. Thro graft and politics Kognic and others have won a ninety nine year lease on the Indian lands.

The Indians are aroused. They know that sheep will devastate a range and eat it to the ground. They call a great powwow, attended also by Polly and the T Bar T men.