

PARTICIPANTS IN TORONTO'S MILITARY TOURNAMENT

The Royal Canadian Dragoons were a gorgeous sight as they went through the intricate manoeuvres of the Musical Ride. A high standard of training and months of hard work are necessary that the complicated figures may work out smoothly and evenly in tournament. The Musical Ride portrays the training of man and horse. All photographs by Alexandra Studios

For the Royal Canadian Air Force display at the Tournament, this machine was brought into the Arena packed on a float and in record time erected and prepared for flight. It was tremendously realistic, if not indeed thrilling

Gentlemen Cadets of Royal Military College on parade. Their performances given by permission of Col. Comdt. C. F. Constantine, D.S.O., were an outstanding feature of the Tournament. Left: Major R. S. Timmis, D. S. O. of Royal Canadian Dragoons on General Toby.

Officers of the Toronto Scottish Regiment who participated in several of the brilliant events of the Military Tournament. Back row, left to right: Lieut. Hugh Mackenzie, Lieut. L. Musson, Lieut. D. McManus, Lieut. M. Scott, Lieut. G. Hyslop, Hon. Lieut-Col. F. B. Robins, Lieut. G. A. Hambly, Lieut. J. M. Aitken, Lieut. L. Hedges, Lieut. J. Baird, Lieut. B. Douglas, Hon. Lieut-right Lieut. C. D. McCreary, Lieut. G. R. Creelman, Lieut. J. L. Griffith, Captain J. H. Christie, M. C., Major W. L. Baynes-Reed, D.S.O., Captain B. Millar, Lieut. J. W. Douglas, Captain W. J. Hambly, Lieut. A. Duncan, Lieut. E. Douglas. Front row, left to right: Captain R. E. Carroll, Major F. E. Odium, Major W. H. Clarkson, Major W. H. Watson, Lieut.-Col. C. C. Harbottle, C.M.G., D.S.O., Major A. M. Thomas, M.B.E., Major C. C. Thompson, Major W. H. Grant, M.V.O., Captain W. A. Curtis, D.F.C.