

Morrison

The wedding party of Captain De Lotbiniere Panet, R.C.H.A. and Mrs. Panet, at Kingston, included Mr. Peter Webster, of Montreal, best man; Mrs. Frederick Aldersen, of Kingston, matron of honor; the bridesmaid, Miss Kathleen Carruthers, of Kingston; Geraldine Hanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hanson, of Montreal, flower girl, and Major C. V. Bishop and Major Harold Brownfield, R.C.H.A., of Kingston, brother officers of the groom. The bride was formerly Edith Elizabeth Burpee Carruthers, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Bell Carruthers, of Anandale, Kingston. The groom is a son of Colonel Charles Panet and Mrs. Panet, Ottawa

Ashley and Crippen

The Greer-Harris wedding party at Coldblow, residence of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Harris, of Cobourg. From left: Mr. H. V. P. Lewis; Mrs. Clifford Beatty; Mr. S. M. Greer; Mr. R. W. S. Johnston; Mrs. Stephen Greer, of Toronto, matron of honor; the bride, formerly Mary Chipman Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Harris, of Cobourg; Mr. Goodwin Harris; the groom, Dr. Philip H. Greer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Greer, of Toronto; Miss Aida Starr; Mrs. Bethune Smith; Mr. Jack Thomson; Mrs. George Hendrie; Mr. Pat Philip and Mr. Charles Gundy. The bride's gown was of lustrous white satin, with court train, while the attendants wore green lace frocks with bronze velvet hats

AUTUMN WEDDINGS