

With wind & with snow
And frost on the windows
And the lodens.

Wint.

The world mind, enough with dread
Was to her intimated, and arid.
The very song, her very heart
Lies in a cage & clings out pale.
The woe in its worst degree
Has full possessed her belly.

The Change

I lived in the town, I groaned,
And I lied in the house, it's pain,
When I came home in the evening
I knew sounds were waiting there.

'Joy always went out to painting
~~but~~. And took 'Srides' as a cheapening,
But 'Friends' would be pleasant with me
With a cold, sad note in her tone.

'Discord' would sit by the fire-side
And tell all the tales that he knew.
