

T - T.

Just once or twice in a lifetime
 Does a fresh breeze blow in our face
 And we choose not the time or the place.
 It comes when we least expect it,
 It comes - oh we know not when.
 And it fills our hearts with gladness
 That is not often felt by men.

Reception:

Why are we foolish?
 Why are we gay?
 Oh God! why do we care
 There is a sentence,
 Life is a song,
 And how will bear us along!
 Our son's departure & plan
 To live not really like that.

Hymns (written for a gift)

Grey hairs - you are my attraction,
 Grey hairs - drive me to distraction
 There is no man delightful & people now
 That won me with their smiles
