

Depression.

Twenty years e Shái toshas?
 Two red lips, e faithless bears;
 tressior fith; e case of books;
 little in the way of looks;
 e lot of hope e some despair;
 e longing for real new'n hairs;
 e published poem; one less letter;
 e pain of shadows which are better for wringing on than wearing dresses;
 an English voice which won't stress Superlatives e ejaculations;
 little interest in the nations'
 arguments e threats of fighting;
 Two large hands forso' fighting cigarettes with ceaseless motion;
 e crazy looting for the ocean
 A hatred for tight shoulder straps - and worst of all. In death e caps!
 When twenty years have gone again?
 Will I have something more by then?
