

Instructor Konnie Johannesson, of the Winnipeg Flying Club, wearing the protective face mask necessary for cold weather flying

Mrs. R. O. Thomson, the first lady pilot of the Fort William Aero Club, who has recently been elected to the club's board

TAKING THE AIR

Pilot Instructor H. B. Free, of the Flying Club of Kingston, beside his plane. He is a Canadian, an ex-squadron leader of the Royal Air Force, and a graduate civil engineer of Queen's University at Kingston

Travelling Companions

Wherever you go, keep a bottle of "4711" Eau de Cologne handy. Queen of all Eau de Colognes, its full strength invigorates, revives, refreshes. Adds daintiness to charm. "4711" Eau de Cologne has dozens of uses—in the bath or basin, after the bath, at the dance or theatre—in moments of fatigue—you'll discover them yourself. In blue-and-gold-labelled bottles 50c, $1.00, $1.50 at all toiletry counters. There are also "4711" Eau de Cologne Cream Soap, Bath Salts, Face Powder, and many other popular toilet necessities.

Sole Canadian Distributors
FRED J. WHITLOW & CO., LIMITED, 165 Dufferin St., Toronto
If you cannot secure your supply locally write direct to the above address.

4711 Eau de Cologne