

Charles Aylett
From left: Mr. Kenneth Rhynas, Mr. Paul Windham;
Miss Gladys
Rhynas, Miss Honor
Rhynas

Ashley & Grippen
From left: Mr.
Rhynas, Mr. Leslie
Rhynas, formerly Miss
Rhynas; Miss Gladys
Rhynas, Dennis Smith

Piddick-Eaton Studio
From left: Miss Helen Weir, daughter
of Peterborough;
Miss Norris Harris,
daughter of Peterborough

Snappy Snacks

~for the Ice-box Buccaneers!

Because it is so popular, many smart hostesses keep a supply of "Chateau" in the house all the time.

"Chateau" has a keen appeal to the appetite. "Snappy Snacks," too, give added zest to the meal—be it full course or just the impromptu lunch. Spread or sliced "Chateau" is easily digested and appeals to everyone.

Special individual wrappings preserve for you the fresh, appetizing "Chateau" flavor. None of it is lost.

So easy to buy—so easy to keep fresh—and so easy to serve! Chateau Cheese Company Limited, Ottawa, Canada.

Do you like cheese with a "nip"?

Then try Chateau's new creation—Snappy Snacks. Wrapped individually, with all the goodness of ordinary Chateau Cheese plus an extra tang that instantly appeals to jaded appetites.

Chateau Cheese

Ask for Chateau Individuals
Chateau Cheese is now for sale at your grocers, packed in half-pound boxes containing eight individually wrapped 1-oz. portions. None of the distinctive "Chateau" flavor is lost. You unseal only what will be eaten immediately. Ask your grocer for a trial package today.

THE ARISTOCRAT OF THE CHEESE

