

The GIFT OF GIFTS

IT'S quite the thing, nowadays, to give the bride a pair or more of Kenwood Blankets . . . in a lovely color to harmonize with the decorative scheme she's planned . . . or perhaps (let's whisper this!) in her favorite shade, to enhance her complexion or her eyes.

Kenwood Blankets make such a practical gift, too. Soft, fleecy, virgin wool. Remarkably light, warm and long-wearing. Washable and color-fast. In thirty-one charming shades and patterns, bound with satin ribbon to match.

It is not a Kenwood unless it bears this silk label. This is your assurance of pure virgin wool and long wear.
