The Quest, first of the two Canadian-built candidates for the challenge of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club, for the Canada's Cup, now held by Rochester Yacht Club, and which was launched at the yards of the Oakville Yacht Building Company, the latter part of April. Top, at left: Miss Audrey Gooderham, daughter of Mr. Norman R. Gooderham, skipper of the yacht, is here seen breaking a bottle of champagne over the bow as it slipped into the water. In the background appear her father and Commodore Gooderham. Top right: Harry Slein Jr., twenty-one-year old Varsity student, and son of Mr. Harry Slein, of the Office Specialty Company of Toronto, with his mother following his gallant performance in the Albany-New York sea flea races. After a series of mishaps he landed third place in Class C., and collected a lot of medals, cups and special prizes

Centre picture: The Quest, one of the trio of yachts which will carry the flags of the R. C. Y. C. during the coming season. Designed for speed, the Quest represents the latest word in marine architecture to meet the compelling demands of safety and speed

Bottom: Official participants in the christening of the Norseman, one of three contenders for the Canada's Cup, snapped at the Royal Canadian Yacht Club early in May. From left: Capt. T. K. Wade, skipper of the new boat, and captain of the R. C. Y. C. fleet; Mrs. W. D. Ross, wife of the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, who christened the Norseman; little Miss Mary Lockhart Gordon, who presented Mrs. Ross with roses and Commodore George H. Gooderham of the R. C. Y. C.
