

Above: Mr. and Mrs. William Alexander Turner Gilmour, of Hamilton, with their wedding attendants. From left: Mr. Robert Labatt, of Hamilton; Mrs. Andrew Starke, Mr. James P. McD. Costigan, brother of the bride; Mrs. Fraser Hadley, of Hull; Mr. Allan H. McDougall; the groom, who is a son of Mrs. Murray Hendrie, of Hamilton and the late William Alexander Gilmour, of Vancouver; the bride, formerly Margaret Alice Costigan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Costigan, of Westmount; Mr. Arthur Abbott, of Valleyfield, best man; Mrs. J. Stevenson Fry, matron of honor; Mr. John Gordon, Miss Lois Williams and Mr. Alexander Ferrie, of Toronto. The bride was distinctive in ivory velvet with court train, while the attendants were gowned in diaphanous yellow

Associated Screen News

At right: The Ogilvie-Walker wedding which took place recently in Westmount; the attendants included, front row, from left: Miss Kathleen Buchanan, Miss Frances Walker, maid of honor; the bride, formerly Ruth Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Earle Walker, of Montreal; Miss Helen Ogilvie, sister of the groom; Miss Joan Walker, Miss Ruth Wilson. Back row, from left: Mr. Reed Blaikie, of Toronto; Mr. W. W. Ogilvie, Mr. Ross Paton, Mr. James Walker, best man; the groom, Mr. Bartlett McLennan Ogilvie, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ogilvie, of Montreal; Mr. John Birks, of Toronto; Mr. Ian Ogilvie; Mr. Hartland Molson; and Mr. Charles Pigot, of Quebec. The bride's gown was a princess model of white satin; the bridesmaids wore princess frocks of dull beige chiffon over gold

Blank and Stoller

THE RETINUE OF SOCIETY BRIDES