

STEPPING OUT IN A SUMMER MOOD

Water-lily pump of parchment kid with buckle of gold kid inlay, rimmed with satin. A creation of La Gioconda. From Henry Morgan & Co., Ltd., Montreal.

Feraquir, a French import by Darwin's of Montreal in lavender, rose, shell or gunmetal kid, laced with fine strips of silver or gold.

Mist gray kid with lizard kid overlays in a smartly designed shoe for afternoon wear. From H. and C. Blachford, Limited, Toronto.

A walking shoe by Laird-Schober. Note the medium heel—the two straps well up on the instep for comfort plus chic. Import by Robert Simpson Company, Toronto.

Delicate fanlike cut-outs, spike heels and narrow edgings for contrast are the high lights of a shoe from George G. Gale and Co., Montreal. In patent with suede, parchment and rose-blush kid and also green kid.

Ties are ultra smart and this model in rose-beige kid with lattice-like crocodile overlays cleverly combines two of the season's leather features. The Bootery, Toronto.

Here reptile kid is to the fore—almost—ahead is finest scrolling of black patent leather curving back from the toe. The Bootery, Toronto.

A black patent ankle strap pump is faintly rimmed with white an accent worthy of note. The neat silver buckle adds to its trimness. From Owens-Elmes, Ltd., Toronto.

Sports shoes must have their little digression into the realm of things fancy. This is a splendid working model of braided tan calf with gum rubber soles and low heels. H. & C. Blachford, Ltd., Toronto.

Here is the dégradé theme carried out in a shoe that is a classic of grace and color harmony. Light and darker beige and ribbons of fine cinnamon leather—a pump from Surpass Shoe Company, Ltd., Toronto.

White kid rims and heels stand out definitely and smartly on black patent leather with sandal like cut-outs. From Owens-Elmes, Ltd., Toronto.

Exquisite, this pump of warm toned bisque shade with unusual inlays of genuine snakeskin. Its Canadian maker has a most exclusive Fifth Ave. New York clientele. Surpass Shoe Company, Ltd., Toronto.

From all indications gray will be more and more popular as the season progresses. A dainty gray shoe chosen a fanlike leather buckle outlined in ciel blue. From Walk-Over Boot Shop, Toronto.

There is litheness in every line of this patent pump with the slim lizard ankle strap that widens into an overlay on the shoe itself. Chambers and Sons, Ltd., Toronto.

Another sports model with feminine inclinations! Fancy, light gray leather, uses plain gray trim, and pretty curves to the inlays. Du Flex Treads promise a steady grip on clay or green. H. and C. Blachford, Limited, Toronto.

Beige calf with delicate graining has just sufficient lattice work on the toe for informal sportive wear, and light brown for fluted contrasts. Walk-Over Boot Shop, Toronto.

A very high heel and a little round toe—so much like French chicness, and in addition patent leather is combined with black and white lizard. Chambers and Sons, Limited, Toronto.

