

January, 1930

GOSSIP

as embroidered with
Among the family one Tudhope and his white tulle and Eileen y Grant, both vividly k red. The latter also Casa Loma when Mrs.
a jolly the dansant for

Hint had been the lar entertainment the
when Ella Northgrave
Mrs. W. T. Northgrave
iven a reception at their or her own friends to ster's Coming Out. At is gifted by the Muses
ing charming manners,
re gown of silver-em-
a in pink—a triumph of ke little Bo-Peep, an sister—her eyes getting er—watched in the back-ills of pink taffeta. Most ites were assisting in the at is effectively paneled atural finish, beautiful-ed especially, Miss Bone frock that had a little a wide sash of apple-green
; just the artistic Burne-e that the Countess of ors.

id in London for her pice, savoring of the Italian, house-decoration, so it was ing to meet her daughter, Annesley travelling here as orker for the Labor party one never associates the ut the Lady Clare has the onary sparkling in her Irish

It was interesting when th her at Miss Chown's to eriences as a parliamentary or Bristol. I drove from the
th Mrs. Laurence Junkin, ly gave a dinner dance for formerly Miss Buckingham, following her other jolly one er-General and Mrs. Gunn.
e of the week was Frances, f the late Charles D. Warren, Warren, whose other are Mrs. Melville Gooderham Carrol K. Warmoth, now of ns, but more popularly known o as Patti Warren. Frances, been feted by a round of mong the hostesses of which s, A. P. Haywood, made a bride in white panne velvet l of Brussels net and Chantilly matron-of-honor, Mrs. Edgar wearing eggshell velvet and
r. Roslyn Vinton Russell had her, Keith, as best man and Melville Gooderham and Mr.
llen were ushers. Mr. Gordon uncle of the bride, gave her

After the ceremony at St.
Church, Major and Mrs.
Gooderham lent their attracuse in Forest Hill Road for the on, where the bride and groom d with Mrs. Charles D. Warren, l in ecru-lace, and Mr. Richard y, of Niagara Falls, N.Y., father room. Mrs. Melville Gooderham, taste is so delightfully Parisian, n exquisite model in two tones of velvet, and Melville, Jr., their ome son, was attentively at hand. ther bride, Mrs. Norman Samuel, s more universally known as the

See also page 116

REGISTERED
KNIT-TO-FIT
SPORTSWEAR

GOING SOUTH! THIS NEW KNITTED COSTUME IN CHARMING PASTEL COLOURS WILL FORM A MOST USEFULL PART OF YOUR WARDROBE FOR SOUTHERN WEAR . . . $25.00

The KNIT-TO-FIT Mfg Co. Limited — 2025 Parthenais St. Montreal

