

—Alexandra Studios

SOME INTERESTING CANADIANS WITH THEIR MOTORS, AS CAUGHT BY MAYFAIR'S PHOTOGRAPHER

Above: Allen Ross, Esq., president of the William Wrigley, Jr., Co. of Canada, Director of the Dominion Bank of Canada, and active in many public welfare enterprises. He is photographed with his Packard eight cylinder Egyptian maroon sedan, with body by Dietrich

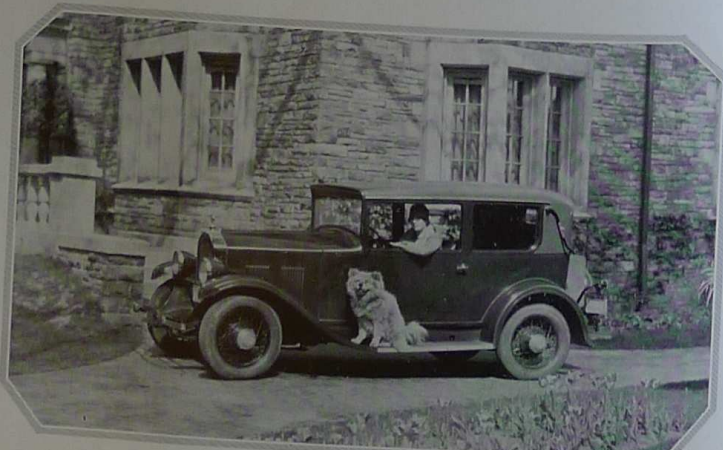

—Campbell Studios

Above: Mrs. Eric Phillips, daughter of R. S. McLaughlin, Esq., of Oshawa, and herself a golfer of considerable distinction. She is seated in her La Salle collapsible Cabriolet coupe. At left, Denton Massey, Esq., with his new Stutz Challenger roadster, caught by Mayfair outside his home at Dentonia Park

—Alexandra Studios

At right: Mrs. E. Burden, a well-known member of the younger married set of Oakville and Toronto in her Little Custom Jordan, outside the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Burden, St. Clair Avenue West, Toronto. Her pet Chow is installed on the running board ready for a spin

—Moore & Nixon-James