

For the active hours on deck, in the motor and at the club, sport suits are the choice. The accepted travel modes of the season also include the coats you see at Fairweathers. You are invited to see an early and exclusive display of the newest models.

First Showing of New Travel Wear

Waving "Good-Bye" is the girl in the three-piece suit of silk and light weight wool. It is an imported garment you can have in stone pink, powder, popcorn, camel or black and white at $37.50

On the pier, "Bon Voyage" shares with "How Smart!" as they bid farewell to the lady of the roses—her coat is a French Rodier Kashavoline in Sandor shade, with Beaver collar and cuffs of the finest quality. Lined with heavy flat crepe. Its price $157.50

The third figure reveals a coat of English Molta Cloth with French nutriette collar. The border effect is used smartly at the centre back. Lapels and cuffs are other features. This one is $85.00
