

emolition of a group of the present city post a great common at the Hill with the Gatineau

n optimist in Ottawa ally settles itself into l and intra-sessional.
omes with the parlia-
The Hill is the centre
ess visitors in corridors one day troops in pear on Parliament
y or his deputy pro-
—and suddenly in a
lips back into herself.
d civil servants may at four o'clock; the
are crammed with o commute night and t Hill becomes a city ably short notice one
the Chateau Laurier.
ue to form this year
ork in a frenzied week
r and wranglings by d, everybody seemed
vice got its increase,
nent has money for
ying; Canadian Na-
their branch lines,
a Washington palace
rime minister got his nd Ottawa got its mission. In fact
ot what he wanted,
thers, and even they
opelessly depressed
the Georgian Bay
ant power. Greater nent got finished by

ght session, socially
s short, and parties pace. The end was
t the Country Club
g when Mr. Gordon
ertained the Liberal members and their

Cabinet are abroad
Ernest Lapointe,
n Australia as the
minion at the May
pital of Canberra.
minister of trade
ope on a six weeks,
official visits to
oners in England, Belgium. He is
alcolm, Mr. Ralph
oney. Mr. Camp-
ber of the prime minister of immigra-

are in the Old
page 78

Miss Edith Baillie

Daughter of Lady Baillie of Rosedale, Toronto and Oakville, Ontario. Miss Baillie appears in a costume characteristic of the Zuyder Zee, one of a series of studies by Minna Keene, F.R.P.S., of Oakville, which Mrs. Keene is presently showing at the Royal Photographic Society's International Exhibition in England