

GOLD . . not "paper profits"

Anyone who last year acquired a Glass Garden has taken from 1929 not loss but great wealth . . . the wealth of increased pleasure and good health.

Now, when Winter winds are sharp as a Cossack's whip, the Glass Garden owner has a Paradise. Drabness outdoors means nothing. Indoors there is always colour, always warmth . . . always variety too—for a Glass Garden is "all things to all men," sometimes a delightful sitting room, sometimes given over entirely to the growing of flowers.

Even a very small Glass Garden pays large dividends in enjoyment . . . a gold mine of health if Vita Glass is used. Assured wealth . . . not uncertain paper profits.

Our newest booklet, "What is So Rare as a Day in June?" is rich in ideas. Send for it . . . to our Toronto Office, please.
