Note

"The Man from Canada" will be published as a novel by the George W. Doran Company of New York City, who are publishing also the author's new novel "Sunny-san", from which a play is being made by Willard Mack, author of Tiger Rose &c.

"Onoto Watanna", the author of The Man from Canada, is a Canadian by birth, and the wife of Francis F. Reeve, president of the Pleasant Range Stock Farm Ltd. She has lived for the past six years upon one of this company's great ranches <sup>cattle</sup> in the foothills of the Rocky Mountains, and knows her subject well. Should the ~~play~~ Alberta part of the play be filmed in Alberta, all facilities of the company will be placed at the disposal of the producers, and as Bow View Ranch is one of the most beautiful ranches in this country, the play can be filmed right at the home of the author, where the "hands" and herds of cattle can also be utilized. The ranch covers over 10,000 acres of land, including ~~xxxxxx~~ canyons and woods of remarkable beauty, while two rivers, the Ghost and the Bow bound two sides of the ranch. Prior to her marriage to Mr. Reeve, Onoto Watanna lived in New York City and is the author of the following novels: Miss Nume of Japan, A Japanese Nightingale (produced also as play at Daly's), Heart of Hyacinth, Wooing of Wistaria, Daughters of Nijo, Love of Azales, Japanese Blossom, Honorable Miss Moonlight Tama, Diary of Delia, "Me", "Marion" (Anonymous) Miss Spring Morning, Other people's troubles, and short stories for all the magazines.
