Autumn Footwear

We are showing, among many new lines, a range of exclusive pumps and strap slippers with short vamps and slim spike heels that have won instant popularity. They are voguish styles, chiefly for the debutante or young matron. In a variety of materials, all sizes and widths, and moderately priced at $10 per pair.

Many charming and useful things are being produced throughout Canada by cottage industry. Picturesque and colorful is this example of a punched rug made from old sweater wools on a burlap base. From Peniticon Women's Institute, British Columbia

The piquant little face on its silken pillow of pleated ribbon makes an attractive lid for this dainty handkerchief holder; a design quite new and individual for one's dressing table. John Northway & Son, Ltd.

Beautiful vase in L. Dage pottery from France. An arresting design, suggesting a butterfly with a solemn eye; in fascinating colors, including Dutch blue, and orange on a cream ground. Robert Simpson Co.
