

En route to the Junior League Camp at St. Sauveur in the Laurentians via the C. N. R.; from the left, Misses Katharine McKim, Florence Walsh, Margaret Mitchell, Margaret Campbell, and Kay Walsh

Miss Elsie Wallis helps at the swings

Above: A rest period in one of the airy tents.

Below: Miss Jean Ramsay, sports director, on the camp's wharf

Below: Miss Elsie Wallis and Miss Kay Walsh

AT THE JUNIOR LEAGUE CAMP

Superintending on the recreation field: Miss Margaret Cameron, Miss Kay Walsh, camp chairman, and Miss Elsie Wallis, all volunteers of Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Ramsay, Thomas Arnold, Joan Riddell, Pamela Street, a cousin of Joan Riddell, Peggy Henderson, whose sister Barbara is in London, daughter of the late Sir Henry B. Ramsay, Herbert Wallis, who is in charge of the League activities.

Mayfair, October, 1930

older sisters as members of the League. The League is held before Christmas; and the winter and seasons are in the service of the League of membership and if no valid reason are dropped from the League in a secretarial Children's, Recreation with the League Clinic, at the Griffiths, serving at the Superintending councilor at the St. Sauveur on the C.N.R.

ance go the profits and for whose Endowment is held, is assured the League's activities, undernourished and are fed and cared for, to play games, carefully; they eat, brown and fat of anxiety among the pounds after a week's to older, bigger girls, unfortunately.

anyway, and they are eight. They must get and wash behind the and accomplish various around the camp; they must help the physical games. And they must—so they have their ate in August, and the country-dwellers back ner sun at Metis and R. Peverley and her's Hutchison and then ending the summer after has returned from anoir for some weeks.

New Brunswick, and n, has been spending nest Le Messurier and n at the summer home Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Island, Maine. Mrs. Andrews by the Sea.

s to attract folk city-ellencies, held sway adian Air Pageant at of the Montreal Light, for the reaction after ge of the latter event g, Marshall M. Foss.

Miss Margaret Alice gigan, to Mr. William late [See also page 74]