

INCTION

er entrant into the United
She was Mrs. F. J. Mal s Golf Club, who, as Miss rival of Miss Mackenzie s. Mulqueen was a former pion and developed into a than one Canadian open Miss Sterling, for a time was held at the Toronto qualified for the champi pen was forced out with a y, Miss Mackenzie scored with Mrs. E. H. Fitter, Miss Helen Payson, Port d the semi-finals after a r Miss Virginia Van Wic n at the turn, Miss Mac se up. She came in in 45 r, and won with six suc er made it an even chan ces championship might the Dominion when she Chaume. The British and out of the championship, experienced and a better 3 and 2.

the United States cham zie, Mrs. Fraser and Mrs. sk of unusual proportio elves three weeks of con f, during which they were best players of America. a for the closed champio olf Course and the open mbton Golf and Country ill include a strong entry ore of the Cherry Valley kenzie is the holder of the sed championships which atever the season brings w can claim a position in golfers. [See also page 82]

Rosemount Juniors, winners at Marlborough (Montreal) Golf Club on Sept. 2. Left to right: Donald Maclean, 87; Barnsley Prichard, 89; Jack McCubbin, 83; Bill Russell, 97.

Below: C. L. Hodgman, winner of Manitoba amateur came to Winnipeg two years ago from Minneapolis

Above: Former and present amateur champions of Quebec. Right, Hugh Jacques, of Whitlock, 1927 champion. Left, Norman M. Scott, Royal Montreal

—Higrove

Gordon McWilliams, Alberta amateur champion, 1927, driving off the 6th at Calgary Golf and Country Club

—Ward and Davidson

—Eaton Studios

YOUTHFUL STARS FEATURE GOLF FINALS

Results of the 5th junior golf championships of Ontario compel a revision of mid-season opinions based on the ability and the records of a host of young golfers this past season. The match went to Gordon S. Gunn, Jr., Mississauga, a long-driving free-hitting Toronto youth who captured the title with a score of 153, defeating Gordon Duncan, Brantford Golf and Country by 6 strokes. The championship round was over Lakeview which makes Gunn's win all the more creditable

Left: Karl Keffer, Royal Ottawa, Pro. who on Sept. 10 tied for the second time with Jack Young, Royal Montreal Pro. for Quebec Open Championship. Below: Jack Young, the brilliant young professional of Royal Montreal