Characters contd:

At Grain ranch

Foreman and farm hand.

At Calgary

Well dressed street crowds, ~~typical~~ Types peculiar to overgrown cowtown;
Adventurers, gamblers, racing men; yankee speculators and get-rich-quick types. Fast women and men; Confidence people; remittance men; booze fighters and besides these distinguished folk from all over world, travellers and agriculturists &c.

At the Stock Yards

Breeders, horsemen, cattlemen, and the usual types.

At the Fair grounds

Typical crowd that follows horse and cattle fairs.

Beside above types, neighbors, farmers and ranchers, the "ranching" type and remittance men and the hardworking pioneer homesteaders.

A touch of color in streets of Calgary shown in the Indians, and also the red coated Canadian Police, the mounted men.

Distinction in dress marked between men on cattle ranch and those on grain, the former wearing chaps, large hats and gauntlets, and the usual get-up and the latter in overalls and any old delapidated hats and shirts.
