

Right: Of general Canadian interest was the smart military wedding of Major Alfred Clarence Larter, of the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps, son of the late Robert M. Larter and Mrs. Larter, of Toronto, and Miss Doris Harriet De Veber, only daughter of Mr. William H. DeVeber and the late Mrs. De Veber of St. John, N.B. Master George Parkin was train bearer, Miss Edith Cudlip, of Montreal, maid-of-honor, and little Miss Daphne Christie also assisted in carrying the train to the really exquisite. Canadians is Waterloo to more familiar faces one's own home town. Nolan, of Calgary, C., whose fame as a lightful raconteur is Harry, is following in a Rhodes Scholar at degree and is now of R. J. Bennett and greetings had been Canadians who had to each other. Among Milton Walsh, a very daughter of Bishop great, great grand- m. Dummer Powell, of Justice of Canada. Richard Walsh, an Kingswood County, s one of the greatest and cattle, assisted in en million acre ranch lian Government in air life was lived on a re ranch in Southern Mrs. Walsh's stories of ere read like a fairy of beautiful dreams. and's death, she has extensively, lecturing hodesia. Last year presented at court. o May Courts to be t and among those g presented is Mrs. of Toronto, who is with her classical s are Lady Davis, of sses Willa and Jean s of Lady Price of Mary Money, of Evelyn Fleming, eming of Donlands, McLennan and Miss y—wife and step- man. There will be

h the two sensations Mary Ashley, one of d the return of Lily r has fascinated the -fashioned beauty— e critic put it in his dardized stars of the mory of an Easter he war when I saw t to me in a flower- She had a frail, very lovely. h was an appalling Lady Haddington, real, was especially ne of green with a hats—the Gains- h attention at the y of Gainsborough's ly delving into the signed the famous inspiration to the er the cars are the w and Worth has 74

Left: Mrs. A. R. Auld, of Toronto, was Miss Edith May McFaul, daughter of Dr. A. M. McFaul, of Collingwood, Ontario. Mr. Auld is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander R. Auld of May Square, Toronto

BRIDES, EAST and WEST

—Charles Aylett

—McDermid Studios

Above: Mrs. Howard Tracey Emery, before her marriage was Miss Dorothy Kathleen Harcourt, eldest daughter of Mr. George Harcourt and the late Mrs. Harcourt, University Campus, Edmonton. The groom is the son of the late Mr. Edward Corrigan Emery and Mrs. Emery. Mr. and Mrs. Emery are honeymooning abroad

Mrs. Harry McLeod Hague, of Montreal, before her marriage in St. George's Church, was Miss Margaret Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth D. Young. Mr. Hague is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Hague, Montreal. The bridesmaids were Miss Constance Harvey, Miss Ruth Starr, of St. John, N.B., Miss Florence Ellegood Young, sister of the bride, and Miss Rachel Hague. The bride's father is an uncle of Madame Roy, wife of Canada's High Commissioner, Paris, France

—Notman