

THE MONTREAL HUNT'S OPEN-AIR HORSE SHOW

is the recently an-gland of Miss Eleanor Henry Japp, K.B.E.,
 ewil Sowest, London,
 est son of Dr. and Mrs
 Sir Henry Japp lived
 and New York, doing
 and at that time Miss Montreal, later taking ew's University. Lady athie Sutherland, of
 R. W. Sutherland, of
 lar and is now doing
 h, prior to taking her
 rees.

the guest of honor
 given by the Hon.
 rkin in their London Commissioner took
 day festival celebra-
 He unfurled the ny of unfurling the
 g also in the proces-
 e laid a wreath on

oner, president of
 ed the dinner gath-
 a Roche in Queen's
 d the opinion that i to bear criticism in other nations.

ad of the success of se oil painting was Spring Salon of the Paris, and occupied
 Grand Hall. No
 o an artist than to the Salon of the difficult exhibitions

milton, Mr. Russel going to Paris and
 rice in 1924, is the
 ing there.

many distinguished
 rait of Sir Wilfrid
 ed to hang in the
 awa but was trans-
 se, the permanent
 ders and now the

better known for
 s of A Canadian
 ter, Matron Eliza-Class, who during
 f two of the most
 in England.

read a newspaper
 rk on the occasion
 n's Art Gallery,
 writes that "Mr.
 pe painter and in
 asing faults which
 e pictures." "In
 'there is a certain
 ich is unsatisfac-
 tion the coloring
 hands and arms
 city for depicting
 that Mr. Russel
 in Canada, and
 sunlit moods."

Mr. Russel's suc-
 nost entirely on
 rings strangely.
 pty for us that
 more of his time
 he sunlight and
 ntry.

—Rice

Mr. and Mrs. Stockwell Day were interested spectators at the Gymkhana, May 20, during the Montreal Hunt Club's Open Air Show. Mrs. Day is a daughter of Grant Hall, Esq., vice-president of the C.P.R.

—Rice

—Rice

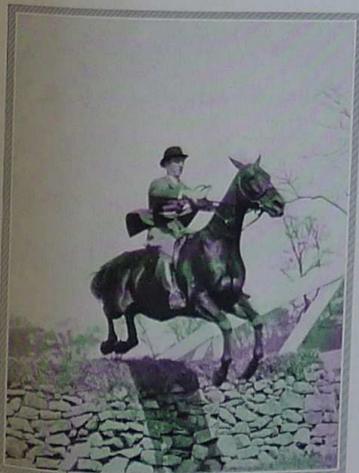

Sir Frederick Williams-Taylor takes in the show. Oval, at left: Miss Ruth Cowans receiving the second prize in the open jumping competition with Lucifer, her mount. Mr. Harold Hampson, M. F. H., is presenting the prize

—Rice

At centre, P. P. Cowans, Esq., father of Miss Ruth Cowans, who was responsible for much of the programme of the show, and Mrs. J. W. McConnell watch events from a vantage point

Below at left, Adelard Raymond takes the wall on Killarney. Below at centre, Miss Audrey Shearer with Sally Sandy in the suit-case race, performing a handicap

—Rice

—Rice

Below at right, Mrs. J. W. Duncan, whose Lady May took first place in the open jumping contest

—United Photographic Co.